

ILEX FOUNDATION

PROPOSAL QUESTIONNAIRE

The Ilex Foundation Editorial Board is glad to consider your manuscript or proposal. To assist us in our assessment of your manuscript or proposal, please complete and submit this form. Use extra pages if needed.

Title:

Subtitle:

Author/Editor:

Section I: The Author

Please attach a full curriculum vitae. If a full c.v. is not available, please complete the information below:

Name:

Address:

Present position:

Previous positions held, with dates:

Previous publications, including date and publisher:

Section II: The Manuscript

Probable length (number of words):

How much of the manuscript has been completed, and when do you expect to finish it?

Is your manuscript already under review with another publisher, and/or do you intend to submit it to another publisher? If so, please provide details of the publisher(s).

How much special typesetting (foreign languages, mathematical) is required? Do you intend to include illustrations in the book? If so, what kind of illustrations do you wish to include, and have the necessary permissions for reproduction been obtained?

NB: All manuscripts must comply with the Ilex Foundation publication guidelines. Please use Unicode fonts if possible.

Section III: The Book

Please provide a prospectus of the book, and clarify its contribution to the study of the humanistic traditions of the Mediterranean and Near East.

For conference proceedings, please explain how each of the chapters and/or sections contribute to the thematic whole. Also, please describe the expansion and revision to the original contributions that has taken place since the conference was held.

Please identify (by name and affiliation) several leading scholars in the field who would be qualified to provide peer evaluation. Anonymous evaluations by unbiased experts with no personal or professional relationship to the author are a critical part of the Ilex Foundation's editorial evaluation.